

Jim Reeves, I Care No More

My love is gone, my pride is gone
I care no more
My heart is tired from loving you
I care no more.

I don't regret when first we met
When love was there
Now love is gone, life lingers on
I just don't care.

Love is a thing that is crazy for all
No matter who
I had my love but I lost it all
When I lost you.

It never should have happened
And it won't no more
My love is gone, my pride is gone
I care no more.

(Love is a thing that is crazy for all)
(No matter who)
I had my love but I lost it all
When I lost you.

It never should have happened
And it won't no more
My love is gone, my pride is gone
I care no more...
