

Jimi Tenor, Spending Time

Yeah girl your eyes are really talking to me
And I know the language well
Right now
I gotta have it right now

Yeah girl your beauty is extraordinary
And I do appreciate it
Right now
I gotta have it right now

Down there where the male blood flows hot and free
The glance the drink provokes
The lust to overflow

Let one touch do what hundred words cannot express
Let one touch do what hundred words cannot express

Yeah girl your fingertips move me to tears
And I like to cry sometimes
Right now
I gotta have it right now

Yeah girl I understand and I am confused
'cause I'm feeling soo'.
Right now
I gotta have it right now

Let one touch do what hundred words cannot express
