

Jimmie Dale Gilmore, Im Gonna Love You

You found me when my heart was broken
And the cold world was closing in
And with a word unspoken
You taught me how to live and love and laugh again

You found me when my wings were broken
And I was crying to the sky
And with your word unspoken
You made me whole and showed me how to fly

And I'm gonna love you, yes I'm gonna love you
As long as you will let me I'm gonna love you

You found me when my dreams were shattered
And what I needed was a friend
To let me know what really mattered
And that it lived and grew within
And then you showed me
Dreaming ain't the way it should be done
And you awakened me
To the awaiting warmth of the sun

And I'm gonna love you, yes I'm gonna love you
As long as you will let me I'm gonna love you

And I'm gonna love you, yes I'm gonna love you
As long as you will let me I'm gonna love you

And I'm gonna love you, yes I'm gonna love you
As long as you will let me I'm gonna love you
