Jimmy Buffett, Stars Fell On Alabama

Moonlight and magnolia, starlight in your hair All the world a dream come true Did it really happen, was I really there Was I really there with you

We lived our little drama, we kissed in a field of white And the stars fell on Alabama last night I can't forget the glamour Your eyes held a tender light And the stars fell on Alabama last night

Never planned in my imagination, a situation so heavenly A fairy tale where no one else could enter And in the center, just you and me, dear My heart beat like a hammer, my arms wound around you tight And the stars fell on Alabama last night
