

Jimmy Dean, Rose Is A Rose Is A Rose

Though they say she's not your kind if you love her pay no mind
It is hard a wise man knows a rose is a rose is a rose
From the finest part of town or a shack that's tumbling down
In a gown or shabby clothes a rose is a rose is a rose
There may be tracks through the heart of town keepin' the two worlds apart
But someday you'll find as I have found there are no tracks in your heart and soul
If you feel that she's the one makes no difference where she's from Cause no matter where it goes a rose is a rose is a rose
Cause no matter where it goes a rose is a rose is a rose
