

Jimmy Fallon, Valentine Candy

She said she likes hard candy

I said, yeah, who doesn't

She likes the little candy is her favorite

With the little hearts with all the words on them like hug me, kiss me, and miss you, and cutie pie

And I said, If I get those things then maybe tonight, you'll be mine

She said you're a complete idiot

Because it's almost midnight on Valentines day, and I haven't got one damn candy

I said took her hand, brushed back her hair, and I sang to her

I said, I know a place that's open up all night, Valentine, Valentine, valtentine
