

Jimmy Nail, I Believed

I believed all the things you said so I laid my weary head and as the dawn began the day all we had was swept away because I believed and you believed that the world was yours you were waiting fr applause but the people ll said no and as you came, so did you go I believed
I believed
oh, you fools
you broke all the rles and now you have to pay they believed that a change would come that one day 'thy will be down' an behold, it came to pass that the free were free at last because I believed
I believed
