

Jimmy Robbins, You're Nothing Short Of Everything

Verse 1

your tears are bleeding down, past your cheekbones to the ground and my words aren't enough you've felt this hurt before, you find your comfort past the door and there's no running this time

Chorus

and all that I want for you, is all that's everything you're everything to me

Verse 2

the cold october moon, it makes me think of you but my thoughts fall short the stars all shed a tear for every second you're not here and I can't breathe without you

Chorus
