

Joan Armatrading, Always

You never say
I love you
You have to add
Always

And if I cry
You wipe the tears away
You say you'll be here darling
Always

But always is a long long time
And time can change so much
I want to stay with you
Always

Oh the gifts that you bring
Darling you have given me
The joy of living
In every way

After all this time
Things haven't changed so much
I want to stay with you
Always
You still say I love you
Always
