

Joan Baez, Babe, I'm Gonna Leave You

Babe, i'm gonna leave you Tell you when i'm gonna leave you leave you when ol'summer time, summer comes a-rolling leave you when ol'summer comes along Babe, the highway is a-callin' the old highway's a-callin' callin'me to travel on, travel on out the Westward callin'me to travel on alone Babe, I'd like to stay here you know I'd really like to stay here my feet start goin'down, goin'down the highway my feet start goin'down, goin'down alone Babe, I got to ramble
You know I got to ramble My feet start goin'down and I got to follow my feet start goin'down, and I got to go
