

Joe Dolan, It's You, It's You

It's You, It's You, It's You
The only one i want
The woman I've been searching for
And if you look at me
You'll see a lonely man
Who's been too long without a home
So why don't we just get together
And try to live our lives as one
It's You, It's You, It's you
The only one i need
To fill my empty heart
I've never been in love before
They tell me that it's beautiful
So darling let me rock
Forever in your arms
It's You, It's You, It's You
The only one I want
The woman I've been searching for
And if you look at me
You'll see a lonely man
Who's been too long without a home
So why don't we join hands together
And be a happy family
It's You, It's You, It's You
The only one I want
To be the mother of my child
I've never been in love before
They tell me that it's beautiful
So darling let me rock
Forever in your arms
It's You, It's You, It's You
The only one I want
The woman I've been waiting for
