

Joe Jonas, All This Time

I know you've been hurt before
But never say never, baby
Slow down, don't close the door
You've been waiting forever, baby
See I know your heart's been scarred
But you've come this far
So baby don't run away
I, I know you're close to giving up
I just want to give you love
And try to keep a smile on your face
So open your eyes & see that we belong together, baby
You'll be surprised to find that things can be much better

I want to take you to a place
Where love is something more than you imagined, yeah
I put it right in your face
Girl, it's yours
All you got to do is reach out and grab it
You waited all this time
You waited all this time
I put it right in your face
Girl, it's yours
All you got to do is reach out and grab it

You played your cards, he left you with a broken heart
Baby, I'll never, I'd treat you like a treasure
It's not your fault, I know you took it hard
That was a mistake
For us it's never too late
You can't live your life in fear
I know it's hard to move on
You've just got to forget it
Cause baby, the sky is clear
The rain is gone, and the sun is shining

I want to take you to a place
Where love is something more than you imagined, yeah
I put it right in your face
Girl, it's yours
All you got to do is reach out and grab it
You waited all this time
You waited all this time
I put it right in your face
Girl, it's yours
All you got to do is reach out and grab it

You waited all this time /3x
You waited all this

Time to get up girl
And take a chance, yeah
There's nothing to be scared of
Just grab my hand
If you need someone by your side
With the love inside
Night or day, I'll be there
You know I will Cause I...

I want to take you to a place
Where love is something more than you imagined, yeah
I put it right in your face
Girl, it's yours
All you got to do is reach out and grab it
