Joe Nichols, I Wish That Wasn't All

"I'm No Stranger To The Rain" come on my radio today I hadn't heard that voice in way too long I've still got these worn out tapes
The only three or four he made, what a shame
I wish that wasn't all

Hearin' that song took me back to my senior year The year I asked Mary Ellen Mayfield to the prom She agreed to go as friends, and I remember thinkin', "man I wish, Lord, I wish that wasn't all"

Ain't it funny how sometimes we can be unsatisfied With things we should be thankful for Like an old Keith Whitley or a slow dance at the senior prom Some things just leave you wantin' more

Like the way I felt that June when Dad called me with the news Through the tears, he told me my granddad was gone He lived til' he was ninety-five, I know that was a long life Still I wish, Lord, I wish that wasn't all

Ain't it funny how sometimes we can be unsatisfied With things we should be thankful for Like the time we get to spend with the ones we love, family and friends Some things just leave you wantin' more

I thank God that I found you Until now I never Knew That love could be this strong I could stay right here and hold you close for ten forevers in a row Still I'd wish, I'd wish that wasn't all Yeah I wish, Lord, I wish that wasn't all
