Joe Purdy, Andrea

You were standing tall In the corner of a light While everybody talked I just stared at you

Singing on And on and on and on Singing on And on and on and on And on

And I was moving closer You pretended not to notice I was waiting on a sign Then you looked up and smiled

Singing on And on and on and on Singing on And on and on and on

Oh Andrea, oh I think I'm sinking down Oh Andrea, honey I want you around

And when you turned to me Your hair fell in your eyes And I moved it away And you looked so surprised

Singing on And on and on and on Singing on And on and on and on And on... And now...

And you said you loved my charm And then you took my arm And then we slipped away to the burgandy rooms Our old soul music played

Singing on
And on and on and on

Oh Andrea, oh I think I'm sinking down Oh Andrea, honey I want you around Oh Andrea, oh I think I'm sinking down Oh Andrea, honey I want you around

And you were standing tall And on and on and on
