

Joel Corry, Drinkin (feat. Rita Ora)

All night I've been drinkin' all night
I've been drinkin' all night I've been drinkin' ayy yeah
All night I've been drinkin' all night
I've been drinkin' all night I've been drinkin' all night ayy yeah

Woke up in somebody's kitchen twenty missed calls
1 percent phone on red, how am I getting home?
Double vision room is spinning, clothes all over the floor
But I ain't tripping cause I'm just living and every night I want more

Flashback to the deep chats with a stranger
Toasting for no reason, celebration
One night turns into a whole situation
But I would do it all again, no regrets no

All night I've been drinkin' all night
I've been drinkin' all night, I've been drinkin' ayy yeah
All night I've been drinkin' all night
I've been drinkin' all night ayy yeah
All night I've been drinkin' all night
I've been drinkin' all night, I've been drinkin' ayy yeah

Last night was a movie, I'm playing it back
Looking through my camera roll like who the hell is that I don't wanna know what I've been spending
I don't wanna know who I've been texting

Flashback to the deep chats with a stranger
Toasting for no reason, celebration
One night turns into a whole situation
But I would do it all again, no regrets no

All night I've been drinkin' all night
I've been drinkin' all night, I've been drinkin' ayy yeah
All night I've been drinkin' all night
I've been drinkin' all night ayy yeah
All night I've been drinkin' all night
I've been drinkin' all night (ayy yeah)
All night all night all night all night
All night all night all night all night
All night all night all night all night
Yeah (all night) yeah (all night)
