

JoEveritt, Wave

the miles of a million roads makes me sad, I think so I wanna walk away, say, stay everyday I age a bit the world's a counterfeit scene, so mean

away, away, you'll see me fly but I won't stop to wave today, today, they'll say oh why but I won't stop to wave good bye I've got no time/time to go the taxes of a billion slaves stuck inside a dead end maze I wanna run away, save, face all the time i lose my mind I think I left it behind I'm searching

but I won't stop to wave, no
