

Joey Cape & Tony Sly, Tragic Vision

In this faltering nation the future belongs to the children in school
There's something wrong
Sixth grader on crack
Handgun overflowing in his hands
Now he is just further demand
We search for the source and still that child is left watching Inhumanity, bloodshed
as the tele-violence feeds his head

Chorus:
Only if he knew the consequence of greed
A contious state of mind
T.V. is not reality

Never a victim the role model said
Bang bang, the bad guy is dead
Always a rockstar on eMpty T.V.
The lesson complete
Now the child has needs
Of competition they bleed
Oh beautiful for bills of green
Nevermind spacious skies overhead
Bleed the earth and butter your bread

(Repead Chorus)
