

Joey Cape & Tony Sly, Wind In Your Sail

It's negative
I wish you the worst dear to feel the greatest pain (A positive)
you said it's all in vain you know I felt and I won't feel again I know you...

hours of madness
years of dysfunction
the deepest embitterment
no will to strive or achieve finally in breakdown eventual fall to your knees as you crawl back to me...

it ends like this I can hope for bliss
if you fail again
('cause I'm right here)
to witness every step and when you trip (I will cherish it)

eventual fall on your knees as you crawl back to...

I live to watch you fail
I live to watch you fail
I live to watch you fail
I am the wind in your sail and I wish you the worst dear

to retrieve all you stole every tear and everything you own and I wish you
hours of madness
the deepest embitterment,
no way to trust anyone this is how I live this is how you left me blue as I crawl back to you
