

Joey Daniels, I'll Be Your Whisky

It's a bottle
On the table
You just sit there
Pulling off the label

Don't you see
No matter what
You can pour
It in your cup

No its never strong enough
No its never strong enough

I'll be the whisky when you're dry
I'll be the water, be your wine
I'll be the one you want to find
When you're thirsty

I'll be your whisky
I'll be your whisky

I see you pacing
You stay up all night pacing
Back and forth them worn out floors
Seen enough of your heart breaking

I'll be the whisky when you're dry
I'll be the water, be your wine
I'll be the one you want to find
When you're thirsty

Just throw the bottle
Straight out the window
Ain't gonna need it tonight

I've got the business
I've got the lemonade
I've got the stuff to get you high

I'll be the whisky when you're dry
I'll be the water, be your wine
I'll be the one you want to find
When you're thirsty

Oh-oh I'll be the whisky when you're dry
I'll be the water, be your wine
I'll be the one you want to find
When you're thirsty
Oh, I'll be your whisky

I'll be your whisky

I'll be your whisky...yeah
