

Joey Fatone, Ready To Fall

I get a feeling I can't explain
Whenever your eyes meet mine
My heart spins in circles and I lose all space in time
And now that we're standing face to face
Something tells me it's gonna be okay
And I'm ready to fall in love tonight
Ready to hold my heart open wide
I can't promise forever, but baby I'll try
Yes I'm ready to fall in love tonight
I know you've been watching, choosing your moment
But I've been dreaming of that day
No one before you has gotten to me this way
And now that we're standing face to face
There's something that I need to say
And I'm ready to fall in love tonight
Ready to hold my heart open wide
I can't promise forever, but baby I'll try
Yes I'm ready to fall in love tonight
Nothing is certain
This I know
Wherever we're headed
I'm ready to go
I can't promise forever, but baby I'll try
Yes I'm ready to fall... in love tonight
Yes I'm ready to fall... in love tonight
Yes I'm ready to fall... in love tonight
