

Joey Moe, My Last Serenade

Mmm Mmm Mmm Mmm (4x)

Don't be surprised

That these are my last words

My last hour of my last day

I've taken all the sorrow

I can bear yo

And now I think I'll turn

Turn and walk away

As wipe cause the tears are building up in my eyes

Feel like I got nothing left to love in my life

20 years of age and its time to say goodbye

Cause I don't even want to try

To make it through the night

Tell them to forget the show tonight (And I don't wanna sing)

Tell them I've given up alright (And it don't even mean a thing)

Make sure the headlines say (I did it for love)

Chorus

With you it all fades away,

There's no more words to say

No more you and me,

Cause the music left with you

And now I'm alone on the balcony

With no more songs to sing,

Only this last serenade

And you know I sing it for you

It won't be a lie

If I told you my life was hurt

Spring, summer, winter and fall

Tell me what to do with this fame ya'll

And do my songs matter at all?

Tell them to forget the video (And I don't want to dance)

Tell them I have left the city yo (And I'm not coming back)

Make sure the headlines say (I did it for love)

Chorus

Anything, I'll do anything

Please make me whole again

You're the reason why I sing

Anything, I'll do anything

Please make me whole again

You're the reason why I sing

With you it all fades away,

There's no more words to say

No more you and me,

Cause the music left with you

And now I'm alone on the balcony

With no more songs to sing,

Only this last serenade

And you know I sing it for you

(Come home, Come home)

Ooooooooooooooh!! Yeaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaahhhh!!!
