

Joey Tempest, Lord Of The Manor

Lord of the manor
Come shed me some light
Lately my life has been a
Struggle and a fight
I hope I'm not asking
Too much of you tonight
So lord of the manor, come shed me some light
Been through some hard times
My woman and I
We've been working so hard
Just trying to get by
But I'm not complaining
Just wondering why
So lord of the manor, come shed me some light
Lord of the manor
Come light up my way
Lately the devil has been
Trying to lead me astray
Come show me your glory
Show me what's right
So lord of the manor, come shed me some light
It ain't for the money,
The fortune or the fame
All I need is some guidance
To get back on my feet again
Don't think I can wait
Til the day that I die
So lord of the manor, come shed me some light
Late last night I had the strangest dream
Swore for a moment I could see
Something so frightening, yet so beautiful
An angel of mercy, sent down to rescue me
So lord of the manor
Come shed me some light
Cause lately my life has been a struggle,
Such a struggle and a fight
I hope I'm not asking
Too much of you tonight
So lord of the manor, come shed me some light
