

Johan, Any Other Guy

Take a ride
Through your head
In your mind I could be dead

You put a spell inside my brain
All you did was driving me insane
Tell me what I'm headed for
And I keep coming back for more
So (....)

On a trip
Through endless streets
Funny flowers so surreal

You're leaving blisters in my brain
All you did was driving me insane
Tell me what I'm headed for
And I can't see the end no more

Any other guy
Would've chosen a prouder way
Turned his back and walked away
But it's alright
I guess I'm fine but I'm so untrue by you

I take a ride
Through your head
In your mind I could be dead

You're leaving blisters in my brain
All you did was driving me insane
Don't know what I'm headed for
I can't see the end no more

Any other guy
Would've turned some brighter way
Turned his back and walk away
But I'm not down
If you're mine
I'm not just any other guy

Would've turned some brighter way
Turned his back guess what he'll stay
It's alright
I guess I'm fine
I'm so untrue by you
