

Johan, Tonight

I remember isolation
I remember everything
I was lost until you came my way
Nothing mattered since that day

Take me down to where she came from
Where pines are waving on the shore
Eyes of black and the feeling I've been had
And you were nowhere near that day

And I feel tonight is gonna be
Like I thought it would be
Yes I feel tonight is gonna be
Like I always thought it'd be

From the stairs I hear you calling
The sound's like razors in my ear
In a flash I'm a million miles away
Never looking back again

And I feel tonight is gonna be
Like I thought it would be
Yes I feel tonight is gonna be
Like I always thought it'd be

And I feel tonight is gonna be
Like I thought it would be
Yes I feel tonight is gonna be
Like I always thought it'd be
