

John Butler Trio, Damned To Hell

where you run is where you hide better hope your hiding well cause when the angel catches you you know your damned to hell

Damned to hell is what you are can you hear the church bells toll and all the money in the world can't save your sorry soul and when you reach the pearly gates and peter reads your tale he'll send you back from whence you came back to your living hell

Damned to hell is what you are
and all the money you have made

and i believe there comes a time where justice does prevail it may not be in my lifetime for you thats just to well

Damned to hell is what you are
