

John Butler Trio, Peaches & Cream

Well theres far too many questions to ask
To answer any of them tonight
For I wear too many masks
To tell you if any of them are wrong or right

And confusion casts a shadow upon me
Like a great big cloud in the sky
And now I pray for rain
Cause its been so long since I let myself cry

CHORUS:

For so long
I've sang this sad ole song
And it feels like my time is up
For she came and landed in my arms
And she filled my half empty cup
Yeah she filled my half empty cup

There you are
Right in front of me
A brand new day
Sunrise over sea.

No longer my cup half empty
Cause there you are
You and your mum in front of me
Infront of me

Now I look up above me
And I thank that great ole God in the sky
For telling me my cup aint half empty
It took my little girl to show me why

CHORUS:

For so long
I've sang this sad ole song
And it apears my time is up
For she came and landed in my arms
And she filled my half empty cup
Yeah she filled my half empty cup

There you are
Right in front of me
A brand new day
Sunrise over sea.

No longer my cup half empty
Cause there you are
You and your mum in front of me
Your peaches & cream to me
You both are peaches & cream to me
You both are peaches & cream to me

All I know is
All I know and
I love you
Yeah, I love you
