

John Farnham, Music

Music was my first love And it will be my last, Music of the future And music of the past. To live with