

John Fogerty, Vanz Kant Danz

(Original title: Zanz Kant Danz)

[Chorus:]

Vanz can't dance, but he'll steal your money,
Watch him or he'll rob you blind. (X 4)

[Chorus]

Out in the street a crowd is gatherin',
Pushed down by the heat of the building, they're wantin' to dance.
Makin' their way up the street, a boy with a pig and a radio;
Little Billy can work on the crowd, put 'em into a trance,
For the little pig Vanz.

[Chorus]

You're watchin' 'em dance, not a care in the world;
So Billy and Vanz get busy, they're makin' their move;
The little pig knows what to do, he's silent and quick, just like Oliver Twist;
Before it's over, your pocket is clean,
A four-legged thief paid a visit on you.

[Chorus x3]
