John Frusciante, What I Saw

There's one room There's one light

There's one night

In the fire

In the pain

In the wire

This from me

This one lie

That seems right

Time can't climb

It can't be

It can't see

I see to be right

I fall down tonight

I go to hell to be what I sell

Falling again is such a welcome end

Can the end of today be more than tonight

Echoes of these far reaching sights

Stuck with the pain of knowing you should have tried

Give me your hands And we'll never die

This love song

It sits wrong

It means jack

The time's right to be wrong

All night long

I feel good

I feel so far away

This is mine

It could be anyday

I saw what I saw

I call up a man

Distance is what gets me right in

I had a hand in everyone losing their place

Never must stop

It's stealing my heart

A moment to squeeze begging on its knees

I know I'll never be right beyond tonight

Give me your hands

And we'll never die
