

John Hiatt, I'll Never Get Over You

I would have thought time could erase

I'll never get over you

The feelings lost in your embrace

I'll never get over you

But still I try

And still I cry

I'll never get over you

I'll never get over you

I tell myself my heart will find

A way to get over you

When I've already lost my mind

Tryin' to get over you

The voice goes on

The feeling's long

I'll never get over you

I'll never get over you

I'll never get over you

I'll never get over you

I recognize

Those crazy eyes

And still they're tellin' me lies

I'll never get over you

I'll never get over you

I'll never get over you
