

John Hiatt, Same Old Man

"Same Old Man"

Truth Is I Never Was Young
Shot Like A Bullet From A Rusty Old Gun
I Could Never Find The Straight And True
Honey, Baby Till I Found You

I Aint Saying I Ever Grown Up Girl
Oh Im The Biggest Baby In The World
I Know You Can Say A Lot About That
But Youre So Sweet You Keep It Under Your Hat

Honey Im Still The Same Old Man
That You Married Way Back When
A Few Less Brain Cells A Lot Less Hair
Honey Tell Me Do You Still Care

I Love You More Than I Ever Did
I Love You Just Like A Little Kid
Guess Ill Always Be Your Biggest Fan
Honey Im Still The Same Old Man

We Been Down A Rough Road Or Two
This Is Another One Well Get Through
Dont Ask Me How I Know
Im Just Saying Baby Please Dont Go

Cause I Can Still Sparkle Up Your Eyes
You Can Still Cut Me Down To Size
Please Take Me As I Am
Honey Im Still The Same Old Man

Honey Im Still The Same Old Man
That You Married Way Back When
A Few Less Brain A Lot Less Hair
Honey Tell Me Do You Still Care

I Love You More Than I Ever Did
I Love You Just Like A Little Kid
I Guess Ill Always Be Your Biggest Fan
Honey Im Still The Same Old Man

You Start Out Trying To Change Everything
You Wind Up Dancing With Who You Bring
I Loved You Then And My Love Still Stands
Honey Im Still The Same Old Man
