

John Lee Hooker And Canned Heat, The Feelin' I

I'm so worried, baby
I don't know what to do, baby
You got me so worried, baby
I just don't know what to do, baby
The most of my troubles and worrin', baby
Is all on account of you, baby
I should have been gone from you, baby
A long time, long time ago, baby
I should have been gone from you, baby
Gone, gone, gone from you, baby
Long time, baby, long time ago, baby
My love for you, baby, it just won't let me go
My love I had for you, baby, just wouldn't let me go

Look here, baby, I knowed, I knowed, baby
What was goin' on, baby
But my love for you, baby, just wouldn't let me go
I should have been gone from you, baby
I should have been gone from you long time ago, baby
Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey

I should have been gone from you, baby
I should have been gone
A long, long time ago, baby
But my love, my love, baby
My love for you just wouldn't let me go from you, baby

But now, baby, I done got over, baby
I done got over from it, baby
The feelin' is gone from me, baby
The feelin' is gone from me, baby
The feelin' is gone from me, baby

That's why I should have been gone long time ago, baby
But my love I had for you, baby
It just, just wouldn't let me go, baby, yeah
But now, the feelin' is gone now, baby
I done got over, baby, I done got over, baby, hey, hey, hey
