

John Lee Hooker, Mama, You Got A Daughter

(John Lee Hooker)

Well mama, mama, talk to your daughter for me
Well mama, mama, talk to your daughter for me
Tell your daughter that I love her now, do anything I can

Tell your daughter I love her, love her until the day I die
Tell your daughter I love her, love her till the day I die
I want you to talk to your daughter, talk to your daughter for me

I love that woman
I'm crazy bout your daughter
I'm waiting for your daughter
I love your daughter
I love your daughter
Tell me what do I do

I said look here mama
Every since mama
Your daughter was 5 years old I was 6 years old
We were going to school together now mama
