

John Mayall's Bluesbreakers, Ridin' On The L&n

Around the bend in the L&n
They loaded it down with a lot of men
The whistle blow and threw the switch
Nobody knew just-a which one switch
I&n#039;m ridin&n#039;, ridin on the L&n
I ain&n#039;t
jivin&n#039;
, ridin&n#039; on the L&n
Well a man named Quin on the L&n
Runnin&n#039;
around on how she&n#039;s been
Train slowed down and the men jumped off
I wasn&n#039;t dead &n#039;cause I heard him callin&n#039;
I&n#039;m ridin&n#039;, ridin&n#039; on the L&n
I ain&n#039;t jivin&n#039;, ridin&n#039; on the L&n
(alternate transcription for the 2nd verse:
Well a man named Glen got the L & N
Heading round all Harsh ? and then Train slowed down and Glen jumped out
He wasn&n#039;t dead cos I heard him shout)
A man named Mose with a great big nose
Sleepin&n#039; on that pile of toes
The doctor came and he rang the bell
The palla alla
get well, well, well
I&n#039;m ridin&n#039;, ridin&n#039; on the L&n
I ain&n#039;t jivin&n#039;, ridin&n#039; on the L&n
(alternate transcription for the 3rd verse:
Well a man named Mose with a greta big nose
He was sleeping on a pile of clothes
Conductor came and ran the bell
The porter hollered - well well well
(Spoken: Walter Trout on guitar!)
