

John Mayer, Fear

Midnight, lock all the doors
And turn off the lights
Feels like the end of the world
There's something I
There's not a sound
Outside the snow's coming down
Somehow I can't seem to find
The quiet inside my mind
Three or two
Space in this room
Has turned on me
And all my fears
Have cornered me here
Me and my TV screen
The valium's down
Blue lights are dancing around
And still I can't seem to find
The quiet inside my mind
do do, do do do, hum...
Daylight is climbing the walls
Cars start, feed walk the homes
The world wakes and now I'm saved
At least by the light of day
At least by the light of day
Hmmm....
