

John Mayer, Suppose I Said

Suppose I said..I am on my best behavior
There are times I lose my worried mind
Would you want me when Im not myself
Waiting now while I am someone else
Suppose I said..colors change for no good reason
Words will go from poetry into prose
Would you want me when Im not myself
Waiting now while I am someone else
And In time come around
I always do for you
Suppose I said..youre my saving grace
Would you want me when Im not myself
Waiting now while I am someone else
