

John Mayer, The Hurt

I'm a good man in a dark room in a big town under a full moon it's a friday and I'm almost home

I'm in a good place full of head space got a brand new pack in my suitcase but it's dinner and then it's bed alone How do you break a mended heart?
I'm bored and want something to do

I wanna fall, fall asleep asleep in the arms, the arms of a woman a woman who doesn't, doesn't deserve my love

I wanna lie, lie to myself myself and someone else
just to feel something, something that hurts me the hurt makes me feel alive

Gonna make it, like I need her gonna miss her the moment I meet her and it's only gonna get worse from there

I'll be rappin' there in the shower she'll be here by the end of the hour I can do better but I can't do better now

How do you break a mended heart?
I'm bored and want something to do

asleep in the arms, the arms of a woman
a woman who doesn't, doesn't deserve my love

myself and someone else
just to feel something, something that hurts me
the hurt makes me feel alive

So long is over nice to skip the chance you get to know you why did I think this was true?
Because I want to

I wanna fall, fall asleep
asleep in the arms, the arms of a woman
a woman who doesn't, doesn't deserve my love

myself and someone else
just to feel something, something that hurts me
the hurt makes me feel alive

I wanna fall
I wanna need I wanna laugh, cry, say goodbye beg, lie, cheat and steal
