

John McLaughlin, Human

Can you tell me how we got in this situation
I can't seem to get you off my mind
All these ups and downs they trip up our good intentions Nobody said this was an easy ride

Afterall, we're only human Always fighting what we're feeling
Hurt instead of healing
Afterall, we're only human
Is there any other reason why we stay instead of leaving afterall?

Can we get back to this point in the in this conversation
When we talk things through each others eyes Cause now all I see is a new and end devastation

Afterall, we're only human
Always fighting what we're feeling

Afterall, we're only human
Is there any other reason why we stay instead of leaving?

I'm smart enough to know that life goes by and it leaves a trail of broken thoughts behind if you fear of letting go, just give me time i'll come running to your side

Can you tell me how we got in this situation
I can't seem to get you off my mind cause afterall we're only human Always fighting what we're feeling
hurt instead of healing
Afterall, we're only human
