John Mellencamp, Brothers

Let's get to the point now
Just because we've got the same mom & Damp; dad
That don't mean I'm your keeper
That don't mean I owe anything to you
You don't care for me
And man, I don't think that much of you

[Chorus:]

Cause we're brothers brothers brothers I don't approve of anything you do Cause we're brothers brothers brothers Cain and Abel and me and you

You drove my car when we were young boys And you tore it up too You never paid to get it fixed And you got me beat up a time or two I know I should forgive and forget But man I still hold a grudge against you

[Chorus]

It's as normal as it can be This sibling rivalry We should have dropped it at 22 But man I can't stand the things you do Cause we're brothers brothers You're always wanting something from me Cause we're brothers brothers brothers It was so much fun having you in the family Cause we're brothers brothers brothers Now that we're grown up it ain't helped nothin' at all Cause we're brothers brothers On my birthday, please don't bother to call Cause we're brothers brothers brothers Brothers brothers Yeah, you're my brother brother brother Brothers brothers Yeah, we're brothers brothers brothers Yeah, we're brothers brothers Brothers brothers
