

John Newman, Easy

[Verse:]

Just another song, just another tale
Of a broken heart
Don't wanna see you hurt
There's something you should learn
From the start

[Pre-Chorus:]

My friend you ought to know
I'm afraid it's time to know

[Chorus:]

Whoever said love was easy?
Should not have told you, oh
Cause every time you feel it, yea
A piece of you is gone
Is it something that you want?
Something that you need?
Something you should know?
Whoever said love was easy, yea
Do you know they told you wrong?

[Verse:]

Write it on the wall, tell it to them all
I'm happy now
Now you're standing tall
Don't wanna see you fall
Down to the ground

[Pre-Chorus:]

My friend you ought to know
I'm afraid it's time to know

[Chorus:]

Whoever said love was easy
Should not have told you, oh
Cause every time you feel it
A piece of you is gone
Is it something that you want?
Something that you need?
Something you should know?
Whoever said love was easy
Should not have told you

[Bridge:]

I know the feeling, is sweeter than ever
But I would regret
I'd rather tell you, now or never
What to expect

Tears don't always dry
But tell em there's no lie
Cause at the end

[Chorus:]

Whoever said love was easy
Should not have told you
Cause every time you feel it
A piece of you is gone
Is it something that you want?
Something that you need?
Something you should know?
Whoever said love was easy
Do you know they told you wrong?
