

Johnny Cash, Wide Open Road

Well the drums rolled off in my forehead and the guns went off in my chest Remember carrying the baby for you Crying in the wilderness

I lost track of my friends, I lost my kin
I cut them off as limbs
I drove out over the flatlands hunting down you and him

The sky was big and empty
My chest filled to explode
I yelled my insides out at the sun
At the wide open road

it's a wide open road, it's a wide open road

How do you think it feels sleeping by yourself?
when the one you love, the one you love is with someone else

Then it's a wide open road
It's a wide open road
And now you can go any place that you ever wanted to go

I wake up in the morning thinking I'm still by your side I reach out just to touch you then I realise

It's a wide open road
It's a wide open road
