Someone really loves you guess who?
Someone really needs you guess why?
Someone wants to kiss you and hold you tight
Someone wants to love you each and every night.
Someone wants to say "Hello";
I know he'll never let you go
When he looks into your eyes I know that you will realize
And guess just who that someone must be
I know you'll know that someone i-i-is me

Someone wants to kiss you and hold you tight
Someone wants to love you each and every night.
Someone wants to say "He-e-e-ello";
I know he'll never let you go
When he looks into your eyes
When he looks into your eyes I know that you will realize
And guess just who that someone must be
I know you'll know that someone
I know you'll know that someone i-i-is me
