

Johnny O'Keefe, A Girl Needs To Love And Be Loved

When she's lonely
And she's crying
And she lies awake and wonders why she's crying
Go to her
Dry her tears
Take her in your arms and kiss away her fears
A girl needs to love and be loved

If you hurt her
And you're sorry
Throw away your pride and tell her that you're sorry
Oh hold her close
Hold her tight
Tell her what you tell her in your dreams at night
A girl needs to love and be loved

And a girl needs all those little things she's dreaming of Well, give her all those little things
They add up to love
To love

If you love her
Make her know it
Take the time and find a hundred ways to show it
She'll be yours
You lucky guy
Just remember this as every day goes by
That a girl needs to love and be loved
