Coming through vision
Coming through wisdom
Coming together, this love
Giving me day time, given this night time
Bringing within me, this love

Una ha hay la
Tymura lu ra
Shana tu hay ah
Lay mai

Coming through wisdom
Coming through freedom
Coming together, this love
Giving me day time, given this night time
Bringing within me, this love

Giving me day time, given this night time
Bringing within me, this love

Coming to the earth, singing to the stars
Change we must, to live again
Coming to the earth, to the moon
Coming to the sky, to the earth
Change we must, to live again

We will witness the sun, we will sing
We belong to the world
Our mother so devine, we live again
This is here, this is now, this is love
This is love that surrounds
Change we must change we must, to live again
