

Jon Bon Jovi, Living In Sin

I don't need no license
To sign on no line
And I don't need no preacher
To tell me you're mine
I don't need no diamonds
I don't need no new bride
I just need you baby
To look me in the eye
Well I know they have a hard time
And your daddy don't approve
But I don't need your daddy
Telling us what we should do
Now there's a million questions
I could ask about our lives
But I only need one answer
To get me through the night
And I say baby can you tell me
Just where we fit in
I call it love
They call it living in sin
Is it you and me
Or just this world we live in
We're living on love
They say we're living in sin
Is right for both our parents
Who fight it out most nights
Then pray for God's forgiveness
When they both turn out the lights
Or wear that ring of diamonds
When your heart is made of stone
You can talk but still say nothing
Stay together but alone
Or is it right to hold you
And kiss your lips goodnight
But that promise is forever
If you sign it on the dotted line
Oh baby can you tell me
Just where we fit in
I call it love
They call it living in sin
Oh is it you and me
Or just this world we live in
We're living on love
They say we're living in sin
Hey baby, can you tell me
Just where we fit in
They call it living in sin
Oh is it you and me
Are we living on love
Or are we living in sin
I don't know just where we fit in
Sometimes it scares me
I don't know where to begin
I don't know where we fit in
We're living in sin
I don't know where to, where to begin
