

Jon Secada, After All Is Said & Done

Music and lyrics by james harris iii, terry lewis, james wright and jon secada

Can you forgive me
Just take me back
I promise to be a man of honor
Is there still a chance
That we can find tomorrow.

Forget the sorrow
Live for today
Cause yesterday's come and gone
Now I know better
I hope you can stand a little stormy weather.

Chorus
After all is said and done
Through all the heartache
Through all the fun
You are the only one

I'll ever love
And I'll work hard to make you see
There's still a chance, girl, if you believe
You are the only one I'll ever love.

Don't walk away, baby, please
I'm begging you
I'm down on my knees
I know I hurt you
But I know you know.

I never will desert you baby
Different strokes for different folks
Your love means the most
Yes, I'm your man
Love you the best I can
Again and again and again.

Repeat chorus
