

Jon Secada, My Life (Through The Spirit In Your

I know
I know now, i understand but if you hear me were there any words I could have said to make u stay I can try to find words now but I dont know what to say to you

I can feel you still here 2 arms around me, helping me move on but will you always be beside me?
cuz my heart can feel your soul but only your eyes can show me the spirit that i need to carry on if I can only see you once

I see my life, through the spirit in your eyes
show me
I see my life,
through the spirit in your eyes save me

it hurts hurts so bad to just to forget you and whipe the tears from eyes and live my life without you I cant make it through this night my heart just cant deny the truth

I can feel you still here
2 arms around me, helping me move on
but will you always be beside me?
but only your eyes can show me the spirit that I need to carry on
if I can only see you once

I see my life,
through the spirit in your eyes
show me
I see my life,
through the spirit in your eyes
save me

why do this now?
why take a part of me?
I close my eyes
I pray you'll still be here
????????????????????
ill rise one day,

to see my life,
through the spirit in your eyes
show me
I see my life, through the spsirit in your eyes
save me
I see my life,
throught the spirit in your eyes
show me
I see my life,
through the spirit in your eyes
save me....
