

Jonas Brothers, Wedding Bells

Pardon my interruption
This drink's just settling in
On my reservations,
A reason I don't exist

She says, can you keep a secret
A ceremony set for June
I know it's a rush but I just love him so much
I hope that you can meet him soon

No, I don't wanna love
If it's not you
I don't wanna hear the wedding bells bloom
Maybe we can try
One last time
But I don't wanna hear the wedding bells chime

Trying to fall asleep
You wake me up cause I'm trying to see the light
Instead of feeling right
I don't wanna hear the wedding bells chime

Wedding bells, wedding bells

Pardon my harsh reaction
You put me on the spot
And if I'm being honest
I'm hoping I'd get caught
Showing you I'm all happy
Not letting you see my truth
Cause if you recall our anniversary falls
11 nights into June

No, I don't wanna love if it's not you
I don't wanna hear the wedding bells bloom
Maybe we can try one last time
But I don't wanna hear the wedding bells chime
Fall asleep and wake me up and I'm trying to see the light
Instead of feeling right
I don't wanna hear the wedding bells chime

No, I don't wanna love if it's not you
I don't wanna hear the wedding bells bloom
Maybe we can try one last time
But I don't wanna hear the wedding bells chime
Fall asleep and wake me up and I'm trying to see the light
Instead of feeling right
I don't wanna hear the wedding bells chime
