

Jonas Brothers, What Did I Do To Your Heart

Baby Girl Im just a bit confused
You've been acting like you've been abused
By me lately, What's going on
All I do is treat you with respect
All the best and never nothing less
But you continue to cry
And I just don't know why
What did I do to your heart
What did I do to your heart
Did I break, apart
Did I break, your heart
What did I do to your heart
What did I do to your heart
Did I break, apart
Did I break, your heart
All I ever get is attitude
Constant never-ending bad mood
From you baby, what's going on
All I need is just an answer please
So I can show you what you mean to me
But you continue to cry,
And I just don't know why
What did I do to your heart
What did I do to your heart
Did I break, apart
Did I break, your heart
What did I do to your heart
What did I do to your heart
Did I break, apart
Did I break, your heart
Whoo
What did I do to your
What did I do to your
Yeah
What did I do to your heart
What did I do to your heart
Did I break, apart
Did I break, your heart
What did I do to your heart
Tell me, What did I do to your heart
Did I break, apart
Did I break, your heart
