

Jonezetta, Backstabber

You're sorry
You said it yourself and we believe you
No we really do!
And now no one is going to save you now

No one is going to save you now

Backstabber! Backstabber! Backstabber!
When you're in disguise
Backstabber! Backstabber! Backstabber!

And now you're laughing
'Cause they laugh at you
You scream out to all the empty pews
And now no one is going to save you now

Now go and pray to your God inside
If you never knew little boy it's you
You can't use me
You won't use me

Backstabber! Backstabber! Backstabber!
When you're in disguise
Backstabber! Backstabber! Backstabber!
One too many times
